

Woman's Hospital is proud to be named one of the Best Places To Work In Healthcare by Modern Healthcare magazine for the 9th year in a row! Since our doors opened in 1968, our focus has been on the exceptional care of women and infants. Join our team and enjoy the challenge of a rewarding career, an attractive compensation and benefits package and an outstanding working environment.

Human Resources Generalist

Woman's Hospital, renowned for service excellence and specializing in the care of women and infants, currently has an opening for a Human Resources Generalist. This position is responsible for coordinating all Human Resources related activities for a group of Woman's Hospital departments. These activities include, but are not limited to, recruiting, orientation, employee relations, employee engagement, performance management, compensation, workforce planning, etc. Bachelor's degree in Business, Management, Human Resources, or related field (4 years exempt-level Human Resources experience may be substituted for degree) is required. Three years HR Generalist experience in addition to requirements listed above is also required. Certification as a Professional in Human Resources is required within first three years of employment (graduate degree in Human Resources or related field may be substituted for certification). Must be knowledgeable of Human Resources practices and procedures as well as state and federal laws pertaining to employment and employee relations.

If interested, apply online:

www.womans.org

Woman's Hospital is an Equal Opportunity Employer